A REPLY TO

A FEW BRICKBATS AND BOUQUETS FROM A PAST NEWSLETTER EDITOR.

I am very impressed with the state of the clubhouse now which is a credit to those who turn out on the work parties etc. Many a motor club, (and other organisations), would be ecstatic to own such a place. What a pity it can't be put to more productive use than just the Friday night club meetings. Anyone out there got any suitable use or ideas?

Thank you Colin on the behalf of those that attended the workparties, I've not been able to lately myself and more volunteers are always welcome. As for alternative uses for the clubhouse we did talk to some other parties about some possibilities last year and they never came to anything but we would be willing to consider any offers.

Congratulations to the overworked and understaffed teams who put on both the road rally and the stage rally each year, these are truly mammoth tasks, which are usually performed by the same faces each time. I fully appreciate the work required, (having had plenty of experience), and would appeal to all members/readers of this article to offer any assistance and support they can, not necessarily to be involved in the organisation, (although this would be greatly appreciated), but simply to help on the day of the events. The club needs these events to keep the club treasurer happy, to develop the clubhouse, to finance the next big event etc. Thanks to the few.

Yup agreed, thanks to the few and new helpers are always welcome.

Selby & DMC Newsletter

So what's new? - we have been appealing for help for years and we still get by - yes, but how? A good example of how was on the recent Trackrod Forest Stages Rally when the Club took full responsibility for one of only 8 stages forming this prestige event, the one at Staindale. Run as it was at a very civilised time of the day, I was unpleasantly surprised at the lack of support from the club's members, having hardly sufficient bodies to cover the stage timing, stage marshalling was virtually non-existent.

We only survived the event by coercing sufficient 86Mhz radio operators to adequately cover the stage, people who were really spectating on our early stage before going to operate on later stages, Our thanks go to Hallam5, Rip1, Eagle9, Humber6 and Arc3, none of which were expecting to help on Staindale and all of which were essential to the safe running of the stage.

I think it was a particularly bad day in that several other events were scheduled locally on the same day and Saturdays do seem to be badly attended as a lot more people than past years seem to have to work, or want to work for the extra money?

I look forward to reading the newsletter but often get frustrated reading event reports which leave you guessing who wrote them, everyone's name gets a mention except the author!

I do sometimes omit to mention who the author of a piece is, Colin, but generally I am as you once were the author of the newsletter rather than the Editor. I did a count up when looking at who was going to get the Colin Barnes Newsletter award and only six reports had been penned by other club members over the last club year.

It is disturbing to find so many club night activities advertised which don't take place. Is this due to lack of bodies again?

Yes lack of bodies, I have a tabletop which has been ready to put on since about 12 months ago but when only one or two people want to have a go it hardly seems worth putting it on.

The situation in the club championships has not been published since May. I presume this is a result of club event organisers not providing the necessary details of entrants etc. for points to be allocated. Such details should always appear in the newsletter but I can't remember reading any for some considerable time.

John Roberts was rather short of time this year to do the Championships so I have got them together with my Computer but the information that has come in is rather sparse and the championship tables attached to the newsletter reflect this.

The club appears to lack promoting itself, here's a few examples:

1) I didn't see the club banner on the Staindale stage, a good place to advertise - free, or is it still missing, (see April newsletter).

It is still missing and when Pete Gunson who has had it in his Garage for at least a year now brings it back we will be most grateful. If he doesn't bring it back soon we shall send him a bill for a new one!

2) I recently read the September issue of Rally Sport magazine and can't find Selby & DMC in the Club Corner Club Directory, is this a mistake or an oversight or don't we bother to tell them we exist?

3) I have just received the York area Citizens Guide for 1998 which includes the Ryedale, Harrogate, Malton, York and Selby areas. In it I find York Motor Club, Malton Motor Club, even the Jowett Owners Club amongst others, yet nothing about Selby and DMC! We have just as much and more to offer as other clubs, why not publicise the fact?

We have been appealing for some time now for a person to contact the local and national media and to bang our drum. Obviously as you have pointed out we are missing out, on valuable free publicity which wouldn't take a great deal of time to obtain, any volunteers (your phone calls and stamps would be paid for).

One last bouquet - I will pay my subs which are now due.

Colin Barnes.

Thanks, Ralph.

MINUTES OF THE COMMITTEE MEET ON 5/12 /97.

Present were Tim Elcock, Alastair Crosby, Richard Glew, Clive Smith, Ben Lawrenson, John Roberts, Ian Hall and Ralph Jackson. Apologies were received from Neill Carman.

We had no previous meeting minutes.

We had no Treasurers report.

The water seems to be off but we decided to fix it in warmer weather.

We decided to try to plan further in advance and therefore to have a committee meeting every two months and hence a newsletter every two months unless there is something that we want to communicate to the members in between newsletters.

We also mentioned the Questionnaires that were sent out with SAE's. I actually had two replies through the post to Dept SDMC and two by hand. Although the committee would normally let their thoughts be known at a committee meeting the other 40 members could at least let us know what they want to do or use the opportunity (of having an SAE) to let us know your feelings.

We had a short meeting.
