ELVINGTON STAGES LATE EXTRAS..

I forgot to mention that poor old David John was down to do the results on the event but unfortunately he had an accident in his van before hand and was not really in a position to help. Hope you get well soon David and get back to the business.

Thanks for whoever returned Colin Barnes' phone I will get it to him when I next pass his door.

Ralph.

A FEW BRICKBATS AND BOUQUETS FROM A PAST NEWSLETTER EDITOR.

I am very impressed with the state of the clubhouse now which is a credit to those who turn out on the work parties etc. Many a motor club, (and other organisations), would be ecstatic to own such a place. What a pity it can't be put to more productive use than just the Friday night club meetings. Anyone out there got any suitable use or ideas?

Congratulations to the overworked and understaffed teams who put on both the road rally and the stage rally each year, these are truly mammoth tasks, which are usually performed by the same faces each time. I fully appreciate the work required, (having had plenty of experience), and would appeal to all members/readers of this article to offer any assistance and support they can, not necessarily to be involved in the organisation, (although this would be greatly appreciated), but simply to help on the day of the events. The club needs these events to keep the club treasurer happy, to develop the clubhouse, to finance the next big event etc. Thanks to the few.

So what's new? - we have been appealing for help for years and we still get by - yes, but how? A good example of how was on the recent Trackrod Forest Stages Rally when the Club took full responsibility for one of only 8 stages forming this prestige event, the one at Staindale. Run as it was at a very civilised time of the day, I was unpleasantly surprised at the lack of support from the club's members, having hardly sufficient bodies to cover the stage timing, stage marshalling was virtually non-existent.

We only survived the event by coercing sufficient 86Mhz radio operators to adequately cover the stage, people who were really spectating on our early stage before going to operate on later stages, Our thanks go to Hallam5, Rip1, Eagle9, Humber6 and Arc3, none of which were expecting to help on Staindale and all of which were essential to the safe running of the stage.

I look forward to reading the newsletter but often get frustrated reading event reports which leave you guessing who wrote them, everyone's name gets a mention except the author!

It is disturbing to find so many club night activities advertised which don't take place. Is this due to lack of bodies again?

The situation in the club championships has not been published since May. I presume this is a result of club event organisers not providing the necessary details of entrants etc. for points to be allocated. Such details should always appear in the newsletter but I can't remember reading any for some considerable time.

The club appears to lack promoting itself, here's a few examples:

- 1) I didn't see the club banner on the Staindale stage, a good place to advertise - free, or is it still missing, (see April newsletter).
- 2) I recently read the September issue of Rally Sport magazine and can't find Selby & DMC in the Club Corner Club Directory, is this a mistake or an oversight or don't we bother to tell them we exist?
- 3) I have just received the York area Citizens Guide for 1998 which includes the Ryedale, Harrogate, Malton, York and Selby areas. In it I find York Motor Club, Malton Motor Club, even the Jowett Owners Club amongst others, yet nothing about Selby and DMC! We have just as much and more to offer as other clubs, why not publicise the fact?

One last bouquet - I will pay my subs which are now due.

Colin Barnes.

Another bouquet, thanks for the letter Colin and a special thanks for the letter on disc. Can I invite comments on some of the points Colin has raised and I will get the Committee to answer some of the questions raised at the next Committee meeting.

LARKSPEED LEAGUE

Larkspeed League final results are attached. Well done to everyone that took part for the club, you got us into the top ten which means that we can organise a round of the championship next year.
