PAST EVENTS

29th January Navigational Scatter by Ben Lawrenson.

This event proved to be a good success and some decent competition was had as three Selby crews turned out along with three Malton crews and two Beverley crews. Ben will be giving us a full report next month

30th January from 1300hrs WORK PARTY.

Ben, Tim and myself turned out on this one and thanks to Mike Smith the water had been repaired on Friday and the pipe just needed burying. We however got on with more important tasks. I plumbed in the dish washer, and mended the gents cistern along with checking out the Outside floodlight which seems to be faulty. Tim put the cover on the outside floodlight as well as helping Ben with the Door and partition to the kitchen.

31st January Workparty from 14:00 if we don't get finished yesterday.

Ben, Richard, Tim and Nils came down and they finished off the door and partition and buried the water pipe and generally had a tidy up.

Wheels

Here is one of the RACMSA's editions of Wheels. Just checking out Facts about Reynard. I know one that not a lotta other people know. During my days of telephone installing I went into a house in Dringhouses in York to put a phone in and there was some sort of commemorative shield on the wall featuring a Reynard racing car and I commented on it and the house owner turned out to be his mother. So Adrian Reynard is from York!

Alastair Crosby's Tabletop.

Just so that you can all have a practice at doing tabletops if you are unable to get down to the clubhouse here is Alastairs last Tabletop set on the 19th February. You just need map 100, a pencil, an eraser and about forty minutes.
