PAST EVENTS.

Elvington Stages Rally by York Motor Club on Elvington Airfield 3rd June 2000.

Andy Elliott won this event using the awesome power of his MG Metro to win but our members came in for their share of glory too.

Clive Smith had been leading Class 3 all day long with Neill Carman navigating for him in his Escort, they finished first in class and eighth overall, 42 seconds clear of the next crew in that class and that crew happened to be our own Charlie and Jemma Gabb in Charlies Sierra who finished tenth overall.

17/18th June Selby and DMC Road Rally.

Many thanks to all that contributed to the success of this event especially Ben Lawrenson who did the initial groundwork to put a route onto maps and ensuring that things took off.

Rally Marshal Incentive

Scheme

Many of you may have seen the article above in yesterday's Motoring News which carried my telephone number. I believe there is something similar in today's Autosport. Unfortunately the article was a bit premature, although good intentioned, as First Motorsport and the British Rally Marshals Club had not at that time had any detailed discussions. It did however provide a lot of publicity and spur some action.

The BRMC will be meeting with First Motorsport in mid July to agree what the schemes aims should be how the scheme should operate. When we have finalized the package the details will be made widely available.

It intended that any incentive scheme would commence from 1st January 2001 to run alongside, but not be exclusively allied to, the proposed Super 1600 Rally Championship. The Training element would integrate with existing events run by MSA licensed "rally officials" instructors.

An internet email list will be created for interested people to subscribe to. I will publish details just as soon as it is operational. This will carry any "hard" information to you as soon as it becomes available.

To register your interest please email info@brmc.org.uk and put incentive 2001 as the subject.

Regards Peter Harrison, Chairman - British Rally Marshals Club, Director - British Motor Racing Marshals Club
